AN ORDINANCE incorporating the University of the State of Deseret.

Sec. 1. Be it ordained by the General Assembly of the State of Deseret: That a University is hereby instituted and incorporated, located at Great Salt Lake City, by the name and title of the University of the State of Deseret.

Sec. 2. The powers of the University shall be vested in a Chancellor and twelve Regents; the number of which Regents may be increased when necessary, who shall be chosen by the joint vote of both Houses of the General Assembly, and shall hold their office for the term of four years; and until their successors are qualified.

Sec. 3. The Chancellor shall be the chief executive officer of the University, and chairman of the Board of Regents.

Sec. 4. The Chancellor and Board of Regents are a body corporate, to sue and be sued; to act as Trustees of the University, to transact, or cause to be transacted, all business needful to the prosperity of the University in advancing all useful and fine arts and sciences; to select and procure lands; erect and purchase buildings; solicit donations; send agents abroad; receive subscriptions; purchase books, maps, charts, and all apparatus necessary for the most liberal endowment of any library, and scientific institution; employ professors and teachers; make by-laws, establish branches of the University throughout the State; and do all other things that fathers and guardians of the Institution ought to do.

Sec. 5. The Chancellor and Regents may appoint a Secretary, and define his duties.

spoken in a deprecatory way about the University before his classes, and that he has also spoken in a very uncomplimentary way about the administration.

The four following acts are therefore regarded by President Kingsbury as among the proper grounds for public charges, followed by dismissal: (a) "speaking in a very uncomplimentary way about the administration;" (b) "speaking very disrespectfully of the Chairman of the Board of Regents;" (c) "speaking in a deprecatory way of the University before classes;" (d) "working against the administration." The last mentioned charge appears to the Committee to be of a greater significance than the first three, and is dealt with separately below, under the head of "Truth of Principal Charge." With regard to the other three charges, the Committee has attempted to ascertain more precisely the nature and occasions of the expressions used by Messrs. Wise and Knowlton, which are set down by the President as reasons for dismissing these professors.

(a) President Kingsbury was asked to inform the Committee as to the nature of Mr. Wise's uncomplimentary references to the University administration, and to state whether these references were made in private conversation or on a public occasion. Dr. Kingsbury replies that the expressions complained of were "statements as to the unfitness of the President for his position;" and that "it is not claimed that the uncomplimentary references were made in public, but they were made freely and without reserve." Mr. Wise, however, states that he never categorically declared Dr. Kingsbury to be unfit for his position, though he has in private talk made criticisms of the President and of several of his official acts and policies. "In departmental matters," Mr. Wise writes, "I have frequently differed from Dr. Kingsbury. I have opposed the policy which regulated the number of teachers by the plans of the President of the University and not by the number of students to be helped. Another 'policy' I have fought is that of keeping Germanics and Romance in one department." Mr. Wise adds that once, in reply to a question

Senate Executive Committee

• Does
  – Reviews documents and listens to presentations on all proposals and reports – Assures compliance—readiness for Senate
  – Recommends corrections and improvements, and alerts authors about likely areas of concern that Senate may have – Places items on Senate agenda—either “Debate” or “Information & Recommendations”

• Does Not
  – Approve anything (except during summer)
Example of Work Flow/approvals process – E.g., Undergrad. Degrees
Senate Agenda Items
“Debate Calendar” = academically significant

• Are in very late stages
  – typically next go directly to Board of Trustees
  – vetted by many different committees & administrators before Senate
  – vetted by Executive Committee

• Most are very good
  – Some are, and should, be expedited
  – Some controversial, some inaccurate, some have unintended consequences

• Which are which?
  – Executive Committee report, Executive Committee Senators
  – Read agenda packets, talk to colleagues, step up
Senate Agenda Items

“Information and Recommendations” Calendar

• Presented for information of Senate members and their constituencies (faculty, students, deans)
• No vote of approval required.
• “Recommendations” are invited and taken seriously.
• Some topics are directed, by Policy, to go to Debate or Information Calendar. For others, Executive Committee makes that determination.
• University Regulations items—Exec Committee chooses.
